CUSTOMERS FEEL POSITIVE

“The products are really good with good values, quality and packaging. Well done”

~Arun, United Kingdom

“I love these products! They have made me change agents of society. Now even I can spread goodness, happiness and positivity around effectively and beautifully!” ~ Bishu, SSSMC, Puttaparthi

“Positive gifts provides a bouquet of products & several options that fill life with positivity and happiness. I have been gifting their products to friends and family, and have received excellent feedback. Their designs are unique and have a high-end utility.”

~Shalabh, CEO, School for Social Entrepreneurs India

“Amazing concept, High Quality Products and Personalized Gifting is how I would sum up my experience with Positive.Gifts. Everyone in my team loved the gifts and I got several messages from each one of them thanking me profusely for giving them such unique and thoughtful gifts.

The best part about these gifts is the thought which has gone in selecting some of the eternal messages in this ever-changing society and that's what makes the impact of these gifts last a lifetime for the recipients. And, lastly, the product quality is par excellence and looks very stylish and contemporary! I Would absolutely recommend these to anyone looking for some cool, classy and thoughtful gifts.”

~ Kapil, Vice President-Genpact, Delhi

In the rigmarole of life, we tend to get so busy that we often get distracted from our centre of goodness and values. When we look back, we strongly wish there was a trigger that would get back our focus right to the centre. The Positive gifts beautifully tried plugging this gap by carefully researching on various aspects of our life where we use products regularly. There are beautiful messages on the products that keep reminding us in every Walk of our lives.

I go to the refrigerator and there is a magnet which gives me the message of my higher self, at workplace before I start there is a calendar that continuously aligns me to the infinite, I take a tea break, there is a cup with beautiful message that reminds me to smile, be in the moment, I place the cup on a tea coaster that reminds me to be courageous, I take a pen start writing down things to do and the pen has a value that is dear to me. I go home in the evening, and I switch on the bed lamp which has a thought that calms me before I sleep.

The Positive gifts not only creatively packages gems of wisdom and integrates into all walks of our lives, but also is not done for commercial purpose, the products are extremely reasonably priced and a part of the profits go towards charity. Kudos to the great work and hats off in taking up a venture that changes our lives for better.” ~Madhav, Vice President-Barclays, Bangalore
